

School district funds may be utilized for the operation of summer school instructional programs, at the discretion of the board of trustees.

If student credit is to be earned in these summer programs, the content, duration and general standards must be equivalent to that of regular term classes, and the courses must be taught by personnel meeting regular certification standards.

LEGAL REFERENCE:

Idaho Code Section
33-506

ADOPTED: July 8, 1996